

MONTANA REPERTORY THEATRE
EDUCATIONAL OUTREACH

WRITING WILD
THE ADVENTURES OF JACK LONDON

FALL 2011 EDUCATIONAL OUTREACH TOUR
A play by JAY KETTERING

Our 50-minute one-man show, Writing Wild: The Adventures of Jack London, offers just such an adventure. Come hear French Frank, the gritty oyster pirate; Broken-Backed Ben talking about Sailor Jack; and others sharing the tales of America's greatest storyteller. You'll feel the fangs bite deep as you run alongside a boy who, by age fifteen, already looked on the world through the eyes of the wolf.

Visit our website for more details: www.montanarep.org

PROFESSIONAL THEATRE IN RESIDENCE
COLLEGE OF VISUAL AND PERFORMING ARTS

MONTANA REP is funded in part by a grant from the Montana Arts Council (an agency of state government), with support from the Montana State Legislature, The University of Montana, the Montana Cultural Trust, Dr. Cathy Capps, and Target Corporation.